The pro se plaintiff, Ramzi Al-Daqqaq, initiated this action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 contending that while he was a pretrial detainee at the Charleston County Detention Center, the defendants violated his constitutional rights.

The defendants answered the complaint and filed a motion for summary judgment. An order was issued pursuant to Roseboro v. Garrison, 528 F.2d 309 (4th Cir. 1975) notifying plaintiff of the summary dismissal procedure and possible consequences if he failed to adequately respond to the motion for summary judgment. Plaintiff did not respond to the motion.

The Magistrate Judge assigned to this action¹ has prepared a Report and

¹ The Magistrate Judge's review is made in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) and Local Civil Rule 73.02. The Magistrate Judge makes only a recommendation to this court. The recommendation has no presumptive weight, and the responsibility to make a final determination remains with the court. Mathews v. Weber, 423 U.S. 261 (1976). The court is charged with making a de novo determination of those portions of the Report to which specific objection is made and the court may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the recommendation of the Magistrate

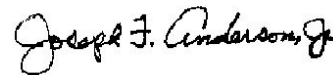

Recommendation wherein he suggests that this court should be dismissed for lack of prosecution pursuant to Rule 41(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The plaintiff was advised of his right to file objections to the Report and Recommendation, which was entered on the docket on June 19, 2007. He did not file objections² to the Report.

After a careful review of the record, the applicable law, and the Report and Recommendation, the court finds the Magistrate Judge's recommendation to be proper and the Report is incorporated herein by reference.

Accordingly, this action is dismissed pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. Rule 41(b).

IT IS SO ORDERED.
